

AMENDED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
of
COMMUNITY MEDIA OF THE FOOTHILLS
(Formerly Monrovia Cable Usage Corporation)
Reference: #1240607

I.

The name of this corporation is COMMUNITY MEDIA OF THE FOOTHILLS.

II.

This corporation is a nonprofit public benefit corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law for charitable purposes.

III.

The specific purposes of this corporation are:

1. To support, manage, produce, and distribute noncommercial, community-based media programs;
2. To provide individuals, organizations, and institutions on a non-discriminatory basis the necessary resources to produce programming for the noncommercial access channel(s) including production of studio and video equipment, training, and channel time;
3. To encourage the use of access channels among a wide range of individuals, organizations and institutions within the cities served by the corporation;
4. To facilitate the use of the public access channels as a public forum which promotes a free exchange of ideas and information;
5. To assure that no censorship over program content of the public access channel(s) exists, except as necessary to comply with the Cable Communication Policy Act of 1984, the Cable Television Consumer Protection and Competition Act of 1992, the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (or the corresponding provision of any future federal cable television or telecommunications law), and the corresponding Federal Communications Commission policies.
6. To serve access viewers with programming reflecting the activities, concerns and interests of the residents of the cities served by the corporation in a manner that promotes a free exchange of ideas and information.
7. To ensure that no individual is discriminated against with regard to membership, services, access to information or any activity of Community Media of Foothills because of race, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation, religion, physical disability, political affiliation, or economic status;

8. To solicit additional funds and resources for and serve as vehicle for the funding of access activities in the cities served by the corporation.
9. To determine and conduct or support any and all other lawful things in furtherance of the foregoing charitable and educational purposes, either manifest or latent.

IV.

This corporation is organized and operated exclusively for educational and charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation, and the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law.

V.

The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this organization shall ever inure to the benefit of any directors, officer, or member thereof or to the benefit of any private individual. Upon the dissolution or winding up of the corporation, its assets remaining after payment of all debts and liabilities of this corporation, shall be distributed and paid over to such fund, foundation, or corporation organized and operated for charitable purposes as the Board of Directors shall determine, and shall at that time qualify as a tax exemption organization under Section 501(c) (3), or corresponding provision of any subsequent federal tax laws.

VI.

No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of lobbying or propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, except as provided in Section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and this corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including publishing or distributing statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.
